Free give-a-ways will take place and several exhibitors will be on hand sharing information about services that may be helpful.

The S.A.L.T. Council was formed in 1996 as part of the national organization known as TRIAD. The TRIAD consists of the police departments, the sheriff's office and representatives of senior citizen groups in a county. The Travis County S.A.L.T. Council is the advisory arm of the TRIAD. S.A.L.T. members meet monthly to discuss law enforcement issues of interest to the senior community. An important component is educating seniors about scams and other illegal schemes directed at this often vulnerable segment of our population.
